

Altona Road Development Pickering, ON

This development sets a new precedent for commercial plazas by allowing storefronts to rise above sunken parking. As a result, the plaza's commercial presence is strengthened at the major intersection it occupies. An elevated and offset second floor day-care utilizes the commercial rooftops as protected playgrounds while providing a sheltered kiss-and-ride below.

AREA 19,900 sf
BUDGET $4 Million
STATUS Under Design